Please replace the paragraph starting at page 14, line 35, with the following rewritten paragraph:

Fig. 5 shows the detail D in fig. 3, that is to say the second lower securing point between the fan frame 31 and the right coolant box 34 in the surrounding region of the securing tenon 36 which is injection-molded, slightly offset, onto the coolant box 34 and is supported via a vertical rib 36a. Above the securing tenon 36, a laterally open box-shaped profile is arranged as a reception orifice 55. The fan frame 31 has injection-molded onto it a profiled foot 56 of box-shaped design which engages into the reception orifice ~~35~~ 55.
